Subject: FOIA REQUEST QUESTION

Good Morning Ms. Henderson,

You have not responded back to me from my two previous email messages. I now need an extension of time to complete your request. The extension date requested is October 10, 2014.

If I do not received a response relating to the extension and the previous two messages your request will be cancelled and you will have to resubmit your request. Please keep in mind that if you do resubmit your request, the information relating to CBI protected information and voluminous information being request would be very time consuming and very costly.

I am still awaiting a response to my earlier emails relating to your FOIA requests EPA-HQ-2014-009683 relating to the CBI information requested to be removed from the request and the removal of voluminous information included in the request that would far exceed the fee limitation indicated.

The request response was due today but I am waiting for your response. I also wrote that I had some of the releasable information ready. Please respond to this message and inform me of your interest.
